THE HONEYSUCKLE REDEVELOPMENT CHALLENGE

Resource 6 — Development Brief and Stakeholder Roles

Display on Board

It is Newcastle in the early 1990s and Honeysuckle's industrial waterfront is changing. Former railway and port-related land is being considered for new uses as part of Newcastle's redevelopment.

As a class decide what should happen to a fictional vacant industrial site on the waterfront.

The land could be used for housing, shops, offices, community facilities, public spaces or new employment opportunities. However, there is limited land and funding, so not every proposal can be included.

Each group represents a stakeholder with different interests and responsibilities. Your challenge is to negotiate a redevelopment plan that considers these competing priorities.

YOUR STAKEHOLDER ROLE

Cut out and distribute one card to each group. Read your role carefully before completing the planning sheet.

1. DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Your role: You coordinate the redevelopment and help turn former industrial land into a useful part of the city.

Your interests: A successful project, investment, new employment opportunities and a redevelopment that benefits Newcastle.

Your influence: You help plan the project, coordinate stakeholders and recommend how redevelopment should proceed.

2. INDUSTRIAL WORKERS AND UNIONS

Your role: You represent workers whose jobs and livelihoods may be affected by changes to the industrial waterfront.

Your interests: Secure employment, fair working conditions, retraining opportunities and recognition of industrial workers.

Your influence: You can organise workers, raise employment concerns and negotiate for better outcomes.

3. LOCAL RESIDENTS

Your role: You represent people living in nearby Newcastle neighbourhoods who will experience the effects of redevelopment.

Your interests: Public waterfront access, community spaces, safety, local jobs and a pleasant place to live.

Your influence: You can raise community concerns, support or oppose proposals and participate in public consultation.

4. PROPERTY DEVELOPERS AND INVESTORS

Your role: You are interested in funding and constructing new buildings and businesses on the waterfront.

Your interests: Financially viable projects, demand for new properties, attractive locations and confidence in your investment.

Your influence: You can provide funding, propose developments and decide which projects are commercially worthwhile.

5. LOCAL BUSINESS OWNERS

Your role: You operate businesses in Newcastle and want redevelopment to support the local economy.

Your interests: More customers, affordable business spaces, reliable transport, employment and opportunities for local businesses.

Your influence: You can create jobs, invest in services and explain how redevelopment might affect local trade.

6. ENVIRONMENT AND HERITAGE ADVOCATES

Your role: You represent people concerned about the environment and the preservation of Honeysuckle's industrial history.

Your interests: Safe land, public green spaces, protection of important buildings and environmentally responsible development.

Your influence: You can campaign, provide evidence, raise concerns and propose conservation measures.

STAKEHOLDER PLANNING SHEET

Prepare for the Development Meeting

Our stakeholder group: _____

YOUR TASK
As a group, decide what your stakeholder needs from the redevelopment and what they would ideally like to see. Be prepared to explain your priorities, negotiate with other groups and make compromises during the class meeting.

1. OUR NEEDS

List three outcomes your stakeholder must achieve for the redevelopment to be considered successful.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Think about your stakeholder's responsibilities, livelihood, values or wellbeing.

2. OUR WANTS

List three outcomes your stakeholder would like to achieve, but could potentially negotiate.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Think about extra benefits that would make the development more successful.

3. POSSIBLE COMPROMISES

What could your group agree to give up or change to help reach a decision with other stakeholders?

_____

_____

_____

4. OUR POSITION AT THE MEETING

In one or two sentences, explain what your stakeholder wants the site to become and why.

_____

_____

_____

DURING THE MEETING

Record one important agreement or compromise made by the class.

_____

_____